College Approaching? Here’s How to Take a Withdrawal from Your CollegeBound fund 529 Account

The time has come to send your loved one to college, which means it may be time to start taking withdrawals from your CollegeBound fund account.

Your qualified withdrawal can be used to pay for qualified higher education expenses for the account’s Beneficiary. This generally includes tuition, fees, room and board, and the cost of books, supplies and equipment required for enrollment or attendance of the Beneficiary at an accredited institution of higher education.

Please note that your withdrawal may be subject to a sales charge. A 10% federally mandated penalty or additional tax applies on any earnings you withdraw for non-qualified expenses. Please see the Program Description for more information.

For tax purposes, the Participant (account owner) should maintain records and documentation of qualified higher education expenses for any withdrawal that he or she intends to treat as a qualified withdrawal. For additional information, please consult with a tax advisor.

There are three ways for the Account Owner to submit a withdrawal request:

1. By internet (for qualified withdrawals only payable to the Participant): Request a withdrawal online at www.collegeboundfund.com. Once logged into your account, select the Account and Fund from which you would like to request a withdrawal. From the menu select ‘Perform Transaction’ then ‘Qualified Withdrawal’ and proceed as directed.

2. By mail: Use the CollegeBound fund Withdrawals and Outgoing Transfers/Rollovers form found on the web at www.collegeboundfund.com.

3. By phone (restrictions may apply): Contact us at 1.888.324.5057

What’s a Medallion Signature Guarantee and when is it required?

A Medallion Signature Guarantee (MSG) is a guarantee that a signature is true and correct. You can obtain a Medallion Signature Guarantee from any financial institution that is an eligible guarantor, including banks, broker dealers, credit unions, national securities exchanges and savings associations.

> A MSG is required if:
- The payee is the Participant/Account Owner and the address to which the payment is to be made is different than the address of the Participant on record with CollegeBoundfund, or
- The payee is the Participant or Beneficiary of the account at the address of record and the address of record has been changed within 30 days prior to the date of the withdrawal request.

The payee is a party other than the Participant of the account, Beneficiary of the account, an eligible education institution, or qualified tuition program, or

- The withdrawal amount payable:
- To the Beneficiary exceeds a total of $7,500 within the last 30 days, and/or,
- To the Participant, an eligible education institution, or qualified tuition program exceeds $100,000.

Please see the CollegeBoundfund Withdrawals and Outgoing Transfers/Rollovers form found on our website for additional information regarding distributions for non-qualified purposes.

If you are not a Rhode Island resident or if you have taxable income in another state, please note that depending on the laws of your or your beneficiary’s home state, favorable state tax treatment or other benefits offered by such home state for investing in 529 college savings plans may be available only for investments in the home state’s 529 plan. Any state-based benefit offered with respect to this plan should be one of many appropriately weighted factors to be considered before making an investment decision. Please consult your financial, tax or other advisor to learn more about how state-based benefits (including any limitations) would apply to your specific circumstances. You may also wish to contact your home state or another state’s 529 plan to learn more about its features, benefits and limitations before investing. Statements in this material concerning taxation are not offered as individual tax advice.
